MONTPELIER

Rev. A. J. Hough, of Trinity church, who has been taking his annual vacation, will be in town today to officiate at the funeral of Henry G. Sherman.

An electric car ran over and killed a large dog on Barre street early Thursday afternoon. The dog was a smooth-haired brindle. The head was almost completely severed from the body.

A party of local gentlemen made the trip to Jack Rogers' shack on the East Montpelier road last evening, where they partook of a big "feed" prepared by the host, with the assistance of one or two of the guests.

A new coal chute is to be constructed at the junction for use in coaling the engines of the Central Vermont railway. The plans have not been fully completed but will be after the style of the one in this city owned by the Montpelier and Wells River railroad company and will have a capacity of about 100 tons.

Robert Egan of Foster street, a line-man employed by the Consolidated Lighting company, while changing a transformer on Barre street yesterday afternoon got over a wire carrying 2,000 volts and was quite badly burned on his leg above the knee. His injury is not considered serious enough to keep him from his work.

Out of a total of 140 marriage licenses which were reported two weeks ago as unreturned, covering a period of 24 years, 118 have been returned to the city clerk's office for record. This leaves 22 unaccounted for. Some of these may come in later but in all probability, the most of them will never be heard from, either not having been used or the parties may have left the state. The authorities feel well pleased with the response made in this respect and now the marriage records on file here may be said to be quite complete.

A runaway on Main and State streets late Thursday afternoon caused considerable excitement for a few minutes but as it happened, no one was injured. Benjamin Daley's coal team was standing in front of the Capital Savings bank on State street while the driver, Fred Douglas, was shoveling coal into the basement. An automobile drew up to the curb, steering almost directly upon the horses who were thoroughly frightened. The pair made a dash to Elm street, over the Langdon bridge and around to Main street and were brought to a stop in front of the Williams garage by Marvin Lord whose auto was being repaired in front of the building. The horses just missed H. N. Pannham who was driving in his automobile on Main street and numbers of pedestrians and teamsters had very narrow escapes. The horses were uninjured.

The weekly open house party was given at the country club Thursday afternoon and evening about one hundred persons attending. The afternoon was spent on the tennis courts and on the links. The largest number of golf players seen on the links this summer were in evidence trying for the yearly trophy. The winners of this weekly handicap will be played against each other in the course of a few weeks for the winner of this handicap tournament. After the afternoon's sport lunch was served in the club house, Mrs. H. J. M. Jones, Mrs. Frank E. Lowe and Mrs. C. O. Baldwin doing the serving. Lunch lasted from five-fifteen until six-thirty after which dancing was enjoyed to the music of a Barre trio. The party broke up at ten-fifteen coming home on the last car for Montpelier.

Mayor Dawley has placed the matter of enforcing the law prohibiting bathing in Berlin pond and awaits results with folded hands. Mr. Oates is looking up the law and will probably not let the matter go by default. Throughout the city among all users of Berlin pond water there is a universal feeling that bathing should not be placed in their drinking water. Several days before it became generally known that swimmers were flourishing around in the water, Dr. Kinchay, the health officer, called the matter to the attention of the state's attorney, and furnished him a copy of the order issued by the board of health prohibiting bathing in Berlin pond and requiring Montpelier to keep a watchman at the pond during the summer time to prevent the water from being polluted. It is expected that the matter will be called to the attention of the state board when it meets here the last of the month.

Anty Drudge Saves Valuable Lace.

Mrs. Houswife—"Here I've boiled and rubbed this lace and the coffee stains are in it yet. I'm simply afraid to do a thing more to it. It looks weak already. I guess it's a goner."

Anty Drudge—"Not if you will take my advice. But you've certainly given it a cooking. Take that boiler off the range, fill it with cool water, rub the lace with Fels-Naptha and soak it a short time. Then rub it lightly and rinse it. The stains will all be gone and the lace'll look as good as new."

"Boil until tender" is what all the cook books say.

Boiling makes most anything tender, even hard wood.

And that's precisely what boiling does to your clothes.

Makes the fibre tender. Then you wonder why your clothes tear so easily and wear into holes so soon.

How else will you get your clothes clean?

Fels-Naptha dissolves and loosens the dirt in cool or lukewarm water, without hard rubbing.

No hot water, no boiling, in summer or winter.

It's such an easy way of washing; makes the clothes cleaner, whiter and purer and they wear twice as long.

Be sure to get the genuine Fels-Naptha and follow directions on the red and green wrapper.
